Throughout the last few years of our lives, the world has seen a myriad of events that will forever alter the pages of history. With the fall of the Berlin Wall in '89 to the liberation of Kuwait in '91, our college years have been filled with amazing events that will be remembered through the ages. Over the years University of Lowell has seen many changes, too. Despite the state's fiscal problems, the University of Lowell continued to provide a quality

Certainly, the University of Lowell has left an indelible mark on the lives of all its students. We are not the people we were four years ago. Each semester seemed to last a lifetime. Every course was a battle. Having won the war, those battles now seem trivial. We have all been changed by the struggle, the failures and the victories.

Was it true? The cold war in Europe was over, but wasn't there supposed to be a world-wide peace? That is what we all hoped for, but quickly realized wasn't possible yet. With Saddam Hussein's brutal annexation of Kuwait, it was time once again for the United States to 'police' the world.

In this age of such advanced warfare and communication technologies, we as a nation were never more aware of what was happening during the war, with constant updates showing the latest destruction caused by a Scud missile in Israel or a majestic victory of a Patriot missile. Never before have many of us students experienced a war so closely. Everyday there was more news about our unexpected superiority over Iraq. News was sought after endlessly. Between classes, we could hope to hear just a little more news of how the war was going. And with all the news coverage, I know I will never forget the shocking images brought straight from the Middle East by CNN during the air strikes or the incredible images brought during the ground war liberation of Kuwait.

As much as we depended upon others for our information, we could only turn to those next to us for comfort. Candlelight vigils and support rallies brought us together and helped us help each other through a very difficult time.

The men and women who put their lives on the line were closest to our hearts. Our Desert Storm soldiers were our fathers, mothers, sisters and brothers, uprooted from everyday lives and thrust into the role of protectors and restorers of peace. Maybe we didn't believe in 'blood for oil', but we believed in the pride of being American and of fighting for justice and peace.

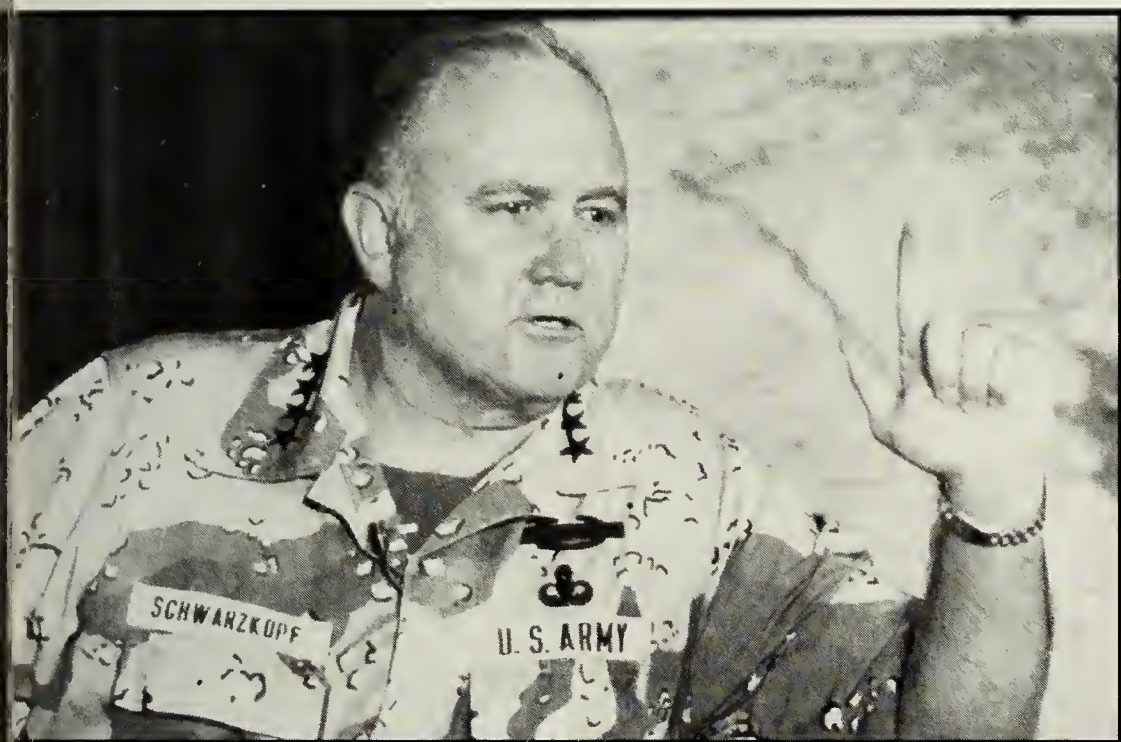

To all of our soldiers in the air, on the ground and water, our simplest words are our most sincere and heart felt: We love you and are proud of you!

Outstanding season Despite injuries

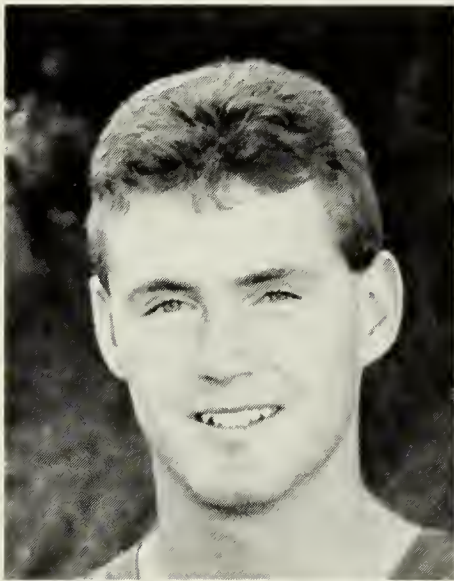

The Men's Cross Country team was ranked eighth in the nation for Division Two in the NCAA pre-season poll. However, the Chiefs never had the chance to reach their ultimate potential as their three top runners, junior Dave Cremin, sophomore John Doherty and senior Mike Chamberas, were injured for the majority of the season.

One of the finest runners in ULowell history, Cremin set a course record at a tri-meet early in the season with Boston College and Massachusetts, then did not run again until the Eastern Regionals in November. It was at the Regionals that he qualified for the NCAA Championships finishing the 10,000 meters in 31:38. At the NCAA meet he placed ninth (30:10) to earn All-American honors for the third straight season.

Mike Chamberas

David Cremin

Doherty led the Chiefs at the New England Championships with a 17th place finish. At the Eastern Regional Qualifiers, he was leading all Chief runners before collapsing in the 4 degree heat. He crawled to the finish line in 2:09, 16th place overall, missing an invitation to the NCAA meet by one place. They were third at the Eastern League Championships behind junior Jim McGaugh (fourth place), freshman Mike Toomey (eighth place) and sophomore Jerry Bailey (13th place). McGaugh and Toomey followed Doherty across the finish line at the N.E. Championships (all divisions), finishing 5th and 69th respectively, helping the Chiefs to ninth place overall. With Cremin and Doherty running at the CAA Eastern Qualifier/ECAC Championship, the Chiefs finished fifth in the region and second in the ECAC.

Finest Season Ever

The Women's Cross Country team enjoyed its finest season ever in 1990. They won their first ever championship at the M.A.I.A.W meet and posted higher finishes than last season at all the major races. The Chiefs placed ninth at the NCAA Division Two East Regional Championship, seventh at the ECAC Championship and 29th at the New England Championships, which featured Division I, II and III schools.

Martha Flynn

The Chiefs relied on a team effort rather than a single standout during the year. Martha Flynn, the captain and only senior on the roster, led the team at the Eastern Regional Championships placing 33rd overall in 19:37 for 5,000 meters. Freshman Tracy Velten led the M.A.I.A.W Championship effort with a fourth place finish overall. She scored second for ULowell behind Flynn at the Eastern Regionals finishing in 19:49. Junior Tracy Maher had her top performance in a dual meet against Keene State and in a meet against Boston College and Massachusetts. She was the first ULowell runner (second overall) to complete the two mile Keene State course in 12:48. She finished the 5,000 meter course at UMass in 20:21, first for ULowell and 11th overall. Juniors Anne Gavigan and Rima Moussa, sophomore Amy Sullivan and freshman Christine Higgins all contributed to the Chiefs success in 1990 by placing in the top five for ULowell in one or more races.

Signs of Improvement

The Field Hockey Chiefs under coach Beverly Agrella posted a 6-11-2 record in 1990. Freshman Amy Lavina led the team with five goals and four assists for a total of nine points. Senior captain Sara Nicolosi contributed 8 points on a team-high six goals and two assists. Other offensive standouts included Miki Bryan (7 points), Colleen O'Connell (6 points) and Melissa Morse (6 points). The defense reduced the goals allowed per game from 3.47 last season to 2.63 this season behind the strong play of junior Raquel Procopio, sophomore Sharon Emmett, and freshmen Jen Carter and Amy Lavina. Sophomore goaltender Ruth Benoit set a team record 280 saves, becoming the all-time saves leader with 527 after only two seasons. Benoit backstopped four shutouts, stopped a remarkable 11 of 15 penalty shots and recorded a 2.45 goals against average.

Sara Nicolosi

Nicolosi, a fine two-way player, completed her career with ten goals and six assists.

Record -Setting Season

For the third straight season the ULowell Football team lost only one game and placed several individuals on post-season all-star teams. The Chiefs finished 8-1 to improve their record over the last three seasons to 25-3. The only loss came at Plymouth State, 34-7, and tainted an otherwise record setting season. This Chiefs team scored the most points and allowed the fewest points in 11 seasons of ULowell varsity football.

Leading the charge were senior defensive end Bob Cote, the defensive and team most valuable player, and senior fullback Brian Gauthier, the offensive MVP. Cote was a first team New England Football Conference and ECAC Division Three New England all-star after posting 48 tackles, 12 sacks and three fumble recoveries in seven games. Gauthier led the team with 777 yards rushing and 16 touchdowns on 155 carries and earned first team NEFC and second team ECAC N.E. honors. Junior tight end Tom Lafferty was a first team NEFC and ECAC selection and a second team Champion USA Division Three All-American. Lafferty led the Chiefs in receiving with 38 catches for 383 yards and nine touchdowns. He also averaged 34.1 yards per punt to finish third in the conference. Sophomore quarterback Billy Rizos completed 57 of 102 passes for 806 yards and nine touchdowns in six games before forced to the sidelines by illness. Freshman Dave Lyons assumed the quarterbacking duties for the remainder of the season, completing 68 of 119 passes for 747 yards and 11 touchdowns. Combined, the two produced the finest passing statistics in the 11-year history of the program. On the defensive side, junior linebacker Jeff Dorandi was the team's leading tackler with 75. Following Dorandi were junior Derek Larson with 54 tackles, and senior Jim DiVita with 50 tackles.

In addition to Cote, Gauthier and Lafferty, seniors Paul Haley, Jim DiVita and Don Bartlett, junior Bobby Scaccia and sophomore Andy Jowett were also named to the NEFC first team. DiVita joined Cote on the ECAC first team. In addition to Gauthier and Lafferty, offensive lineman Andy Jowett, place kicker Dennis Anselmo and kick returner Chrs Meelia received second team ECAC honors.

According to final statistics released by the NCAA, the Chiefs were rated the nation's second best pass defense among Division Three teams. The Chiefs compiled a pass efficiency defense rating of 58.1. ULowell was fifth in total defense and 11th in scoring. Coach Dennis Scannell said, "Our seniors have never played on a losing team during their four years and have helped us establish a winning football tradition at the University of Lowell. We are losing some outstanding players, key players who have meant so much to our team the past three or four years." Completing illustrious careers as members of the ULowell Football team were ten seniors: Darrel Davidow, Tim Bernier, Brian Gauthier, Paul Haley, Don Bartlett, Jim DiVita, Dennis Rich, Bob Cote, Ron Anderson, and Adam Sigel.

The Soccer Chiefs posted their best record since 1983 finishing 6-12-0. Not counting the NECC games, the 1990 University of Lowell Soccer team finished 6-5 and outscored its non-conference opponents 31-26. Unfortunately, the Chiefs fell victim to the nationally-prominent NECC teams seven times.

The Chiefs might have been more competitive had senior goaltender Mike McIntosh been with the team the entire season. McIntosh, the most valuable player on last year's team, was lost for the season with a shattered finger, after posting a 2-3 record. The Chiefs had four scorers in double figures, led by sophomore Dave "Hot Foot" Foley's 16 points. It was the second straight season Foley has led the Chiefs in scoring. Junior John Pion scored five goals and added three assists. Senior sweeper Joe Gilligan scored four goals with four assists for 12 points. Senior Bob Kitsos had ten points, and much improved Larry Bourassa netted four goals with an assist. Senior co-captain Mike Considine completed a fine career at ULowell. This season Considine scored 2 goals and added 5 assists.

The Chiefs' seven goals in a victory over UMass-Boston were the most goals a ULowell team had scored in a ten years. This team stopped a six-game mid-season losing streak by defeating Worcester Polytech for the first-time ever on a goal by junior Jim Young with eight seconds left in the game.

"If our players continue to improve by working in the off-season more and experimenting in practice, we'll continue to get better. I expect some time soon we'll win the conference" concluded

Coach Sean McGowan.

The Women's Tennis Team completed its finest season in history, posting an impressive 12-1 record, successfully defending its New England Collegiate Conference Championship and taking 2nd place in the New England Division II tournament. The Chiefs shut out their first four opponents, 9-0, winning 44 consecutive singles and doubles matches to start the season. The only loss of the year came in a match shortened by darkness against Division I University of New Hampshire, 4-2. Altogether the Chiefs won 131 of 152 (.862) individual and doubles matches.

Freshman Joy Higgins posted an impressive 19-1 singles record in the top spot for the Chiefs. Higgins brought home the NECC #1 singles crown by recording a perfect 5-0 record at the conference tournament. Higgins and #2 singles player Tracy Capone comprised the highly successful #1 doubles team. Together, the pair lost only two matches during the season. Capone was the 1990 NECC #2 singles titlist while posting a 14-4 dual-match record.

Junior Florina Raducanu and senior captain Donna Leonard made up the #2 doubles team. This duo lost only one match during the season, a three-setter in the New England tourney. The highlight of the year was winning the #1 doubles crown at the NECC tournament. Raducanu, competing in the #3 singles position, won 10 of 15 matches. Leonard capped her career by winning the New England Championship in fourth singles and finished the season with a perfect 16-0 record.

Sophomore Valene LaBelle and junior Laura Marshall posted impressive 12-3 records competing as the #5 and #6 singles players respectively. LaBelle and Marshall both reached their respective flight finals in the New England tournament.

Together, the pair was crowned NECC #2 doubles champions.

Best Season Ever

The Women's Volleyball team blazed through its 1990 schedule winning 35 of 41 matches including two 13-match winning streaks. They captured tournament championships at Southern Connecticut and St. Michael's and were invited to the ECAC Division Two tournament. The season ended with a 3-1 loss to Buffalo State in the first round of the ECAC's. At the University of New Haven tournament, ULowell defeated Bentley (2-0) for the first time ever and placed second to host New Haven after losing in the final, 2-1. Their 15-12 win in the second game of the New Haven match marked the first time the Chiefs won a single game against the Chargers of New Haven.

"This team was much better than any other team I've coached here," said Coach Ann Leonard. "We have a nice combination of confident older players, and younger players who gave us more depth on the bench..." Senior Christine Leonard, junior middle blocker/attack Marybeth Fleming and junior setter Michelle Roy were named to the American Volleyball Coaches Association All-Northeast Region team. Co-captains Christine Leonard and Sue Martin were the only seniors on the 1990 squad.

A Frustrating Year

The Men's Basketball team finished 11-17 overall, placing seventh in the NECC during the 90-91 season. Ten of Lowell's NECC games were decided in the final minutes or in overtime. They won four of those games, and of the six losses, two were by one point, one in overtime, and another by two points. Lowell proved it could win big games by sweeping the season series against pre-season favorite New Haven and defending league champion New Hampshire College. The Chiefs were a couple big plays away from hosting a play-off game instead of traveling to Bridgeport for the quarterfinals, where they lost, 100-84, after leading at halftime.

Eleven lettermen, including four players who averaged double figures in scoring, are expected to return next year. Guard Steve Lane led the Chiefs with 15.8 points per game, 69 three-pointers and 96 assists. Forward A.J. Hoff emerged as a potential all-star and averaged 18.3 points and 7.1 rebounds and shooting .539 from the floor. Center Willie Collins had a blazing start, but never completely regained his rhythm after missing six games in the middle of the season with a broken hand. Despite the injury, Collins finished with 13.1 ppg and a team-high 7.9 rebounds per game. Forward Liam Scully, the only returning starter, averaged 10.0 ppg and 4.3 rpg.

Junior guard Mike Reed averaged 7.4 ppg, 3.8 rpg and shot .818 from the free throw line in 21 games before fracturing his thumb in February. Junior guard Greg Roderick blossomed in Reed's absence shooting .650 from the field, .933 from the free throw line, and averaging 10.4 ppg and 4.3 rpg in the last seven games. Junior point guard John Jordan was second on the team with 68 assists, and shot .476 from three-point territory. Senior co-captain and guard Pascal Jobin started the first six games, but an old knee injury acted up limiting him to 15 games total.

NECC Champions

After losing 8 of their first 12 games, the Women's Basketball team staged a remarkable turnaround in the second half of the season and charged to the first 20-win season (22-9) in the 16-year history of the program. They won a ULowell basketball record 18 straight games, which included their first New England Collegiate Conference regular season and tournament titles. The season climaxed with the Chiefs first appearance in the NCAA Division Two Tournament. "We simply played as a team," said sixth-year coach Kathy O'Neil, who was named the NECC Coach of the Year after directing the Chiefs to a perfect 14-0 league record. "In the beginning, some players tried to do too much. When everyone learned their roles, we became a better team and different people were coming up with big games on different nights."

The Chiefs were the top seed in the NECC tournament after clinching the regular season title with a 75-53 win over Keene St. They won their quarterfinal match-up against New Haven, 83-58, and hosted the NECC Championship Weekend. Following a 79-56 semifinal win over Southern Connecticut, the Chiefs won the tournament championship with an 80-63 victory over New Hampshire College. The season and winning streak ended with an 82-65 loss to St. Anselm in the NCAA New England Regionals. This loss was also the end of senior guard Rosalyn Worsley's career. The co-captain is the all-time leading scorer with 1,563 points including 1,017 in the last two seasons when the Chiefs posted a 41-21 record. She was selected to the NECC first all-star team for the second straight year and to the ECAC North first team after leading the Chiefs with 17.5 points per game, 43 three-pointers, and a team record 81 steals this season.

The Chiefs would not have been so successful with Worsley alone. Juniors Kendra Lippmann and Cathy Rhuda and sophomores Jennifer Morrison, Darlene Orlando-Ciarcia and Ginger Sanford all stood out during the course of the season. Orlando-Ciarcia, an NECC first-team selection, led the team with 71 blocks and was second in scoring (14.4 ppg) and bounding (8.4 rpg). She was named the Most Valuable Player of the NECC play-offs. Co-captain Lippmann averaged 5.0 points per game and passed out 127 assists. Morrison grabbed a team-high 279 rebounds, two short of the single-season record, and scored 8.5 ppg. Rhuda was the ultimate role player averaging 8.9 ppg, 4.1 rpg, 2.2 assists per game and 1.9 steals per game. She scored double figures seven of the last 13 games. Sanford emerged as the shooter of the future averaging 9.3 ppg and connecting on a record .438 of her free-point attempts (35/80). She was tremendous in the NECC play-offs hitting 17 of 24 shots (.708) including eight of nine three-pointers. Freshman Paulette Milne and Robyn Wainwright greatly improved during the season. Milne, who became the first post player off the bench after sophomore center Kim Brigham was lost for the season after nine games with a knee injury, scored a season-high ten points in the NECC Championship game and averaged 3.9 ppg and 2.7 rpg for the year. Wainwright was reliable all season as the backup point guard to average 1.8 ppg with 12 three-pointers.

Riley Era Ends

Veteran hockey coach Bill Riley has hung up his skates and whistle after a 22-year career as the Chiefs' mentor. During his tenure as head coach, Riley guided the Chiefs to 363 victories, three NCAA Division Two titles, four ECAC Division Two East crowns, nine ECAC tournament berths, four Hockey East semi-finals, and was the driving force behind the program's survival and eventual elevation to Division One in 1983.

Riley, who announced in 1990 that he would be stepping down at the conclusion of the 1990-91 season, gave the fans one last glimpse of the magic that made him one of the nation's most respected coaches when he had his Chiefs less than eight minutes away from upsetting the University of Maine in the first round of the HOCKEY EAST play-offs. Unfortunately for the Chiefs, the tank ran dry and the heavily favored Black Bears rallied for a 5-3 victory effectively ending the "Riley Era" at ULowell.

The 1990-91 Chiefs finished the campaign with a 10-23-1 overall record and a 5-15-1 mark in Hockey East (seventh place). A young team (only four seniors on the roster) that showed signs of improvement over the course of the five-month season, the Chiefs should have a solid nucleus for new head coach Bruce Crowder to build upon next season. "I thought we had good leadership and were a complete team. There was a lot of camaraderie and the players got along off the ice as well as on," commented Riley. "I thought we finished strong. We were playing good positional hockey and executed well."

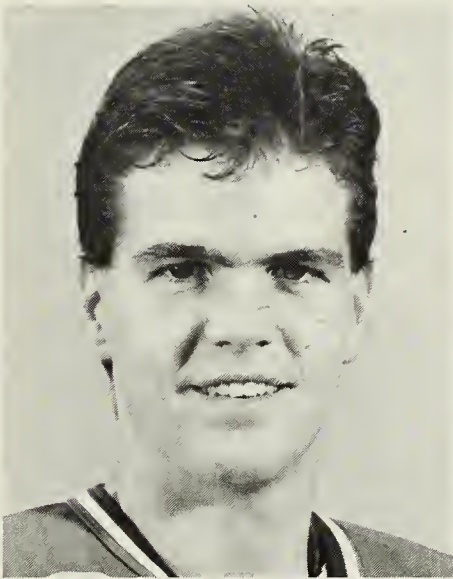

Looking back on his 22-year association with the Chiefs' program, Riley said, "It's been a great ride. We always enjoyed ourselves. It was fun working for and reaching our short and long range goals over the years. It was my personal goal to elevate this program to be a respectable Division I program. It's been very rewarding."

Senior captain Brendan Flynn led the team in scoring with 39 points on 13 goals and 26 assists. Senior Steve Ablitt who missed the last month of the season after having an appendectomy, was next in the scoring parade with nine goals and 16 assists. Rounding out the top four scorers were junior wing Dave Gatti with 14 goals and 10 assists for 24 points and sophomore center Dave Stevens with 13 goals and 11 assists. Sophomore left wing Dave Pensa was the team's leading goal scorer lighting the lamp 16 times during the season. He finished with 22 points. Junior Don Parsons was the top scoring defenseman with 23 points on seven goals and 16 assists.

Junior Mark Richards and freshman Dwayne Roloson split the goaltending chores during the season. Roloson, who was named Hockey East's Rookie of the Week on three occasions, finished the season with a 5-9-0 record, a 4.59 goals against average, and a .873 save percentage. Richards compiled a 5-13-1 record with a 4.75 gaa and .867 save percentage.

Finally, when asked how he wanted people to remember him, Riley paused and answered

"Basically, with a smile on their face."

The Swimming Team finished the 1990-91 season with a 2-5-1 record and placed 13th in the New England Intercollegiate Swimming Association Championships. Their wins came against Keene State and Holy Cross. Junior Rob Holt was the Chiefs' top overall point scorer with 109.25. He had five first place finishes and seven second place finishes during the season. Junior Scott Clayman, voted the team's Most Valuable Swimmer, scored 104.25 points on five first place finishes and seven first place relay finishes. Junior John Jakubek was the top point scorer in the N.E.I.S.A. meet with a tenth place finish in the 100-yard backstroke. He totaled 83.5 points for the year. Senior tri-captain Mark Rebillard, who was part of 11 first place relay finishes, freshman Ricky Wong and sophomore Neil Sullivan all scored better than 80 points.

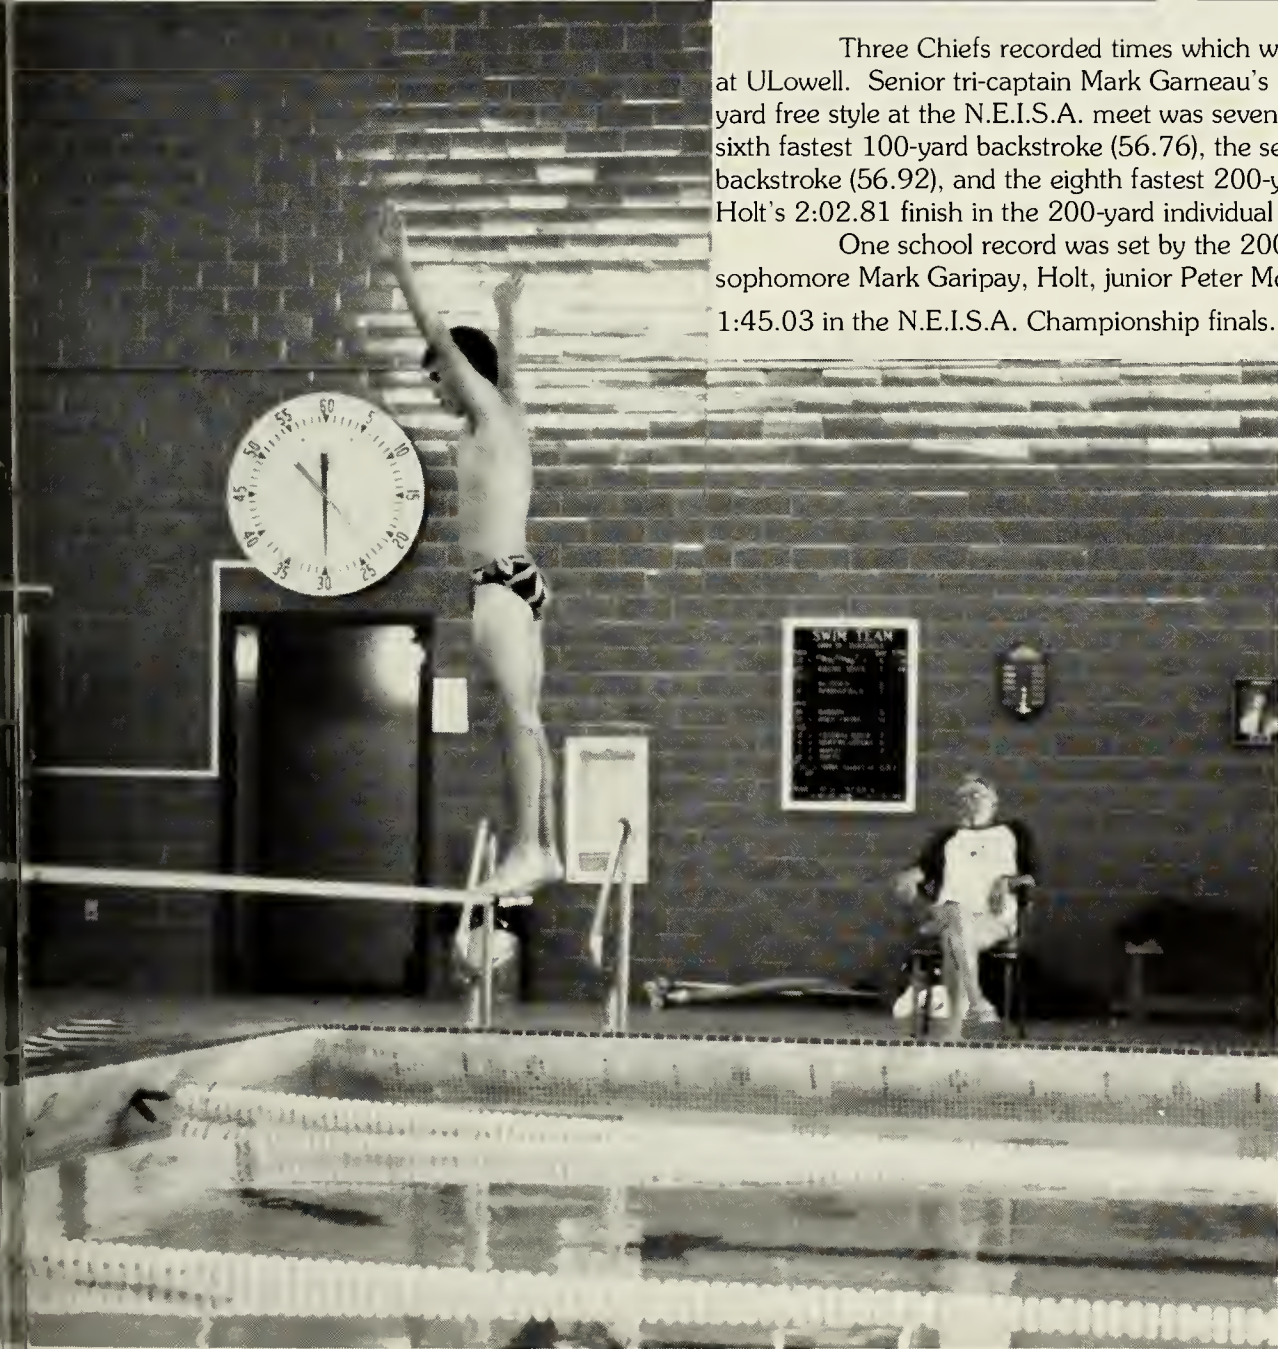

Mark Garneau

Mark Rebillard

Three Chiefs recorded times which were among the top ten all-time at ULowell. Senior tri-captain Mark Garneau's 18:06.27 finish in the 1,650-yard free style at the N.E.I.S.A. meet was seventh all-time. Jakubek raced the sixth fastest 100-yard backstroke (56.76), the seventh fastest 100-yard backstroke (56.92), and the eighth fastest 200-yard backstroke (2:07.26). Holt's 2:02.81 finish in the 200-yard individual medley is the seventh all-time.

One school record was set by the 200 medley relay team of sophomore Mark Garipay, Holt, junior Peter McCarron, and Sullivan with a 1:45.03 in the N.E.I.S.A. Championship finals.

championships at 126-pounds in the Wildcat Invitational and the Plymouth State Invitational, finished fourth at the NCAA Northeast Regionals, third at the N.E. Invitational and second at 134-pounds at the Doug Parker Invitational. He had nine pins during the year. Kennedy posted a 20-6 overall record and qualified for the second time for the NCAA Championships with a second place finish at the Northeast Regionals. He was champion for the 150-pound class at the New England Invitational and finished second at the Doug Parker Invitational. Ten of his wins during the year came when he pinned the opponent. Nolan wrestled to a 22-8-1 record at 190-pounds and led the Chiefs with 11 pins. He posted second places at the Doug Parker Invitational and the Plymouth State Invitational, a third at the Central Connecticut Open, and a fourth at the Northeast Regionals. Other Chiefs

NECC Champions

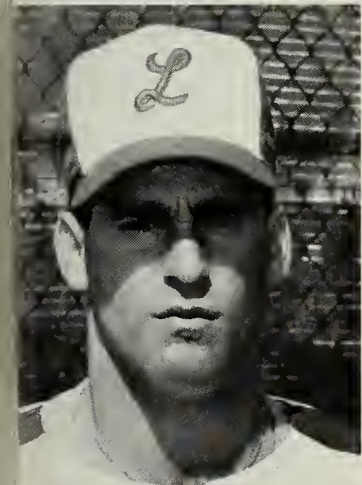

Beginning the 1991 season without four projected starters, including two under tragic circumstances, one could not blame the Baseball team for possibly having an off season. Rather than slowing the Chiefs down, the adversity had an inspiring effect on the team's play. The season was dedicated to the memory of David Boutin, the catcher who passed away to cancer in 1990. The Chiefs finished 30-12, only the second 30-win season in the 16 years of baseball at ULowell. After a 4-4 trip to Florida, they won 25 of their 31 regular season games in New England, captured the NECC pennant for the third time, and earned their sixth berth in the NCAA Division Two Tournament. The Chiefs were eliminated by host A.I.C. in the NCAA Northeast Regional finals.

The Chiefs swept a double header from perennial New England power New Haven in two classic extra inning match-ups. Senior tri-captain Scott Johnson pitched a 12-inning shutout and senior rightfielder Marty Piper singled home junior third baseman Steve Talbot in the bottom of the twelfth for a 1-0 win in game one. Freshman Dave Hebert plated Talbot with a single in the bottom of the eighth for a 5-4 victory in game two. After clinching the NECC title and an NCAA berth with an 18-1 win over Franklin Pierce, the Chiefs won the first NCAA game against Sacred Heart, 12-2. They lost 11-10 and 15-10 slugfests to A.I.C. to end the season. Post-season honors were heaped upon the Chiefs including head coach Jim Stone, who was selected NECC Coach of the Year and the ABCA All-Northeast District Coach of the Year. Junior centerfielder Peter Feeley was a second team All-American, the NECC Player of the Year, an All-Northeast District first teamer and an ECAC Division Two North all-star after hitting a team-high .431 with 14 doubles, six triples, seven home runs, 40 runs batted in and 19 stolen bases in 42 games. Hebert (.321, 22 RBI) was the NECC Rookie of the Year.

Senior tri-captain and shortstop Danny Barros hit .323, scored a team-high 46 runs, and was named to the All-NECC first team and the All-Northeast second team.

Junior tri-captain Steve Lane (.324, 14 SB) was All-NECC second team, an ECAC North all-star, and All-Northeast first team honoree. Sophomore designated hitter Ken Pires (.336, 7HR, 37 RBI, 11SB) was All-NECC, All-Northeast and an ECAC North first teamer.

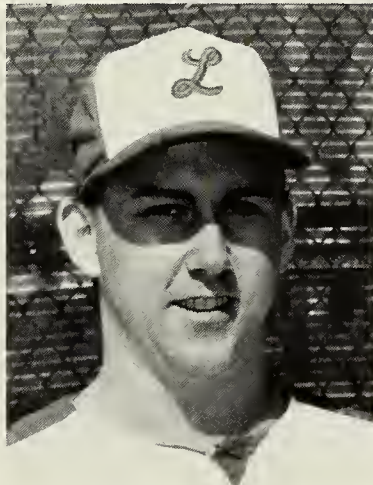

Piper and sophomore catcher Matt Moran (.266, 5HR, 29 RBI) were voted All-NECC first team and Johnson, who finished 8-3 with a 2.24 earned run average and ten complete games, was named to the second team. Talbot (.351, team high 49 RBI) was honored as an ECAC North all-star.

A loss to Salem State College was the only blemish on the Golf team's spring schedule as they posted an 8-1 record. Coach Bob Callary's team was eighth of 19 teams at the Massachusetts Intercollegiate Tournament, third of 11 teams at the Southeastern Massachusetts Invitational, and fourth of seven teams at the Salem State Invitational.

Senior Jason Gurney was the sweetest swinger during the spring season with an average of 82.3 in eight rounds. He was low medalist with a 77 against Nichols and a 76 against Salem State and Bentley and fired a 75 at the Salem State Invite, the lowest round on the team for the spring season. Junior Craig Shirley had two sub-80 rounds and averaged 82.9 in nine rounds overall. He led the Chiefs with a 79 against M.I.T. and shot a season-best 77 against Salem State and Bentley. Junior captain Keith Stone opened the spring with a 76 against Suffolk and a 78 against Nichols and finished the season averaging 83.5 in eight rounds.

Pitching Staff Shines

Despite the loss of three key players who decided against playing in 1991 and then losing another starter four games into the year, the Chiefs had a quick 6-2 start including four straight wins in the New England Collegiate Conference. Eventually, all the changes took its toll on coach Beverly Agrella's team. The Chiefs finished with a 9-23 record.

Mary Williamson

Maureen Casey

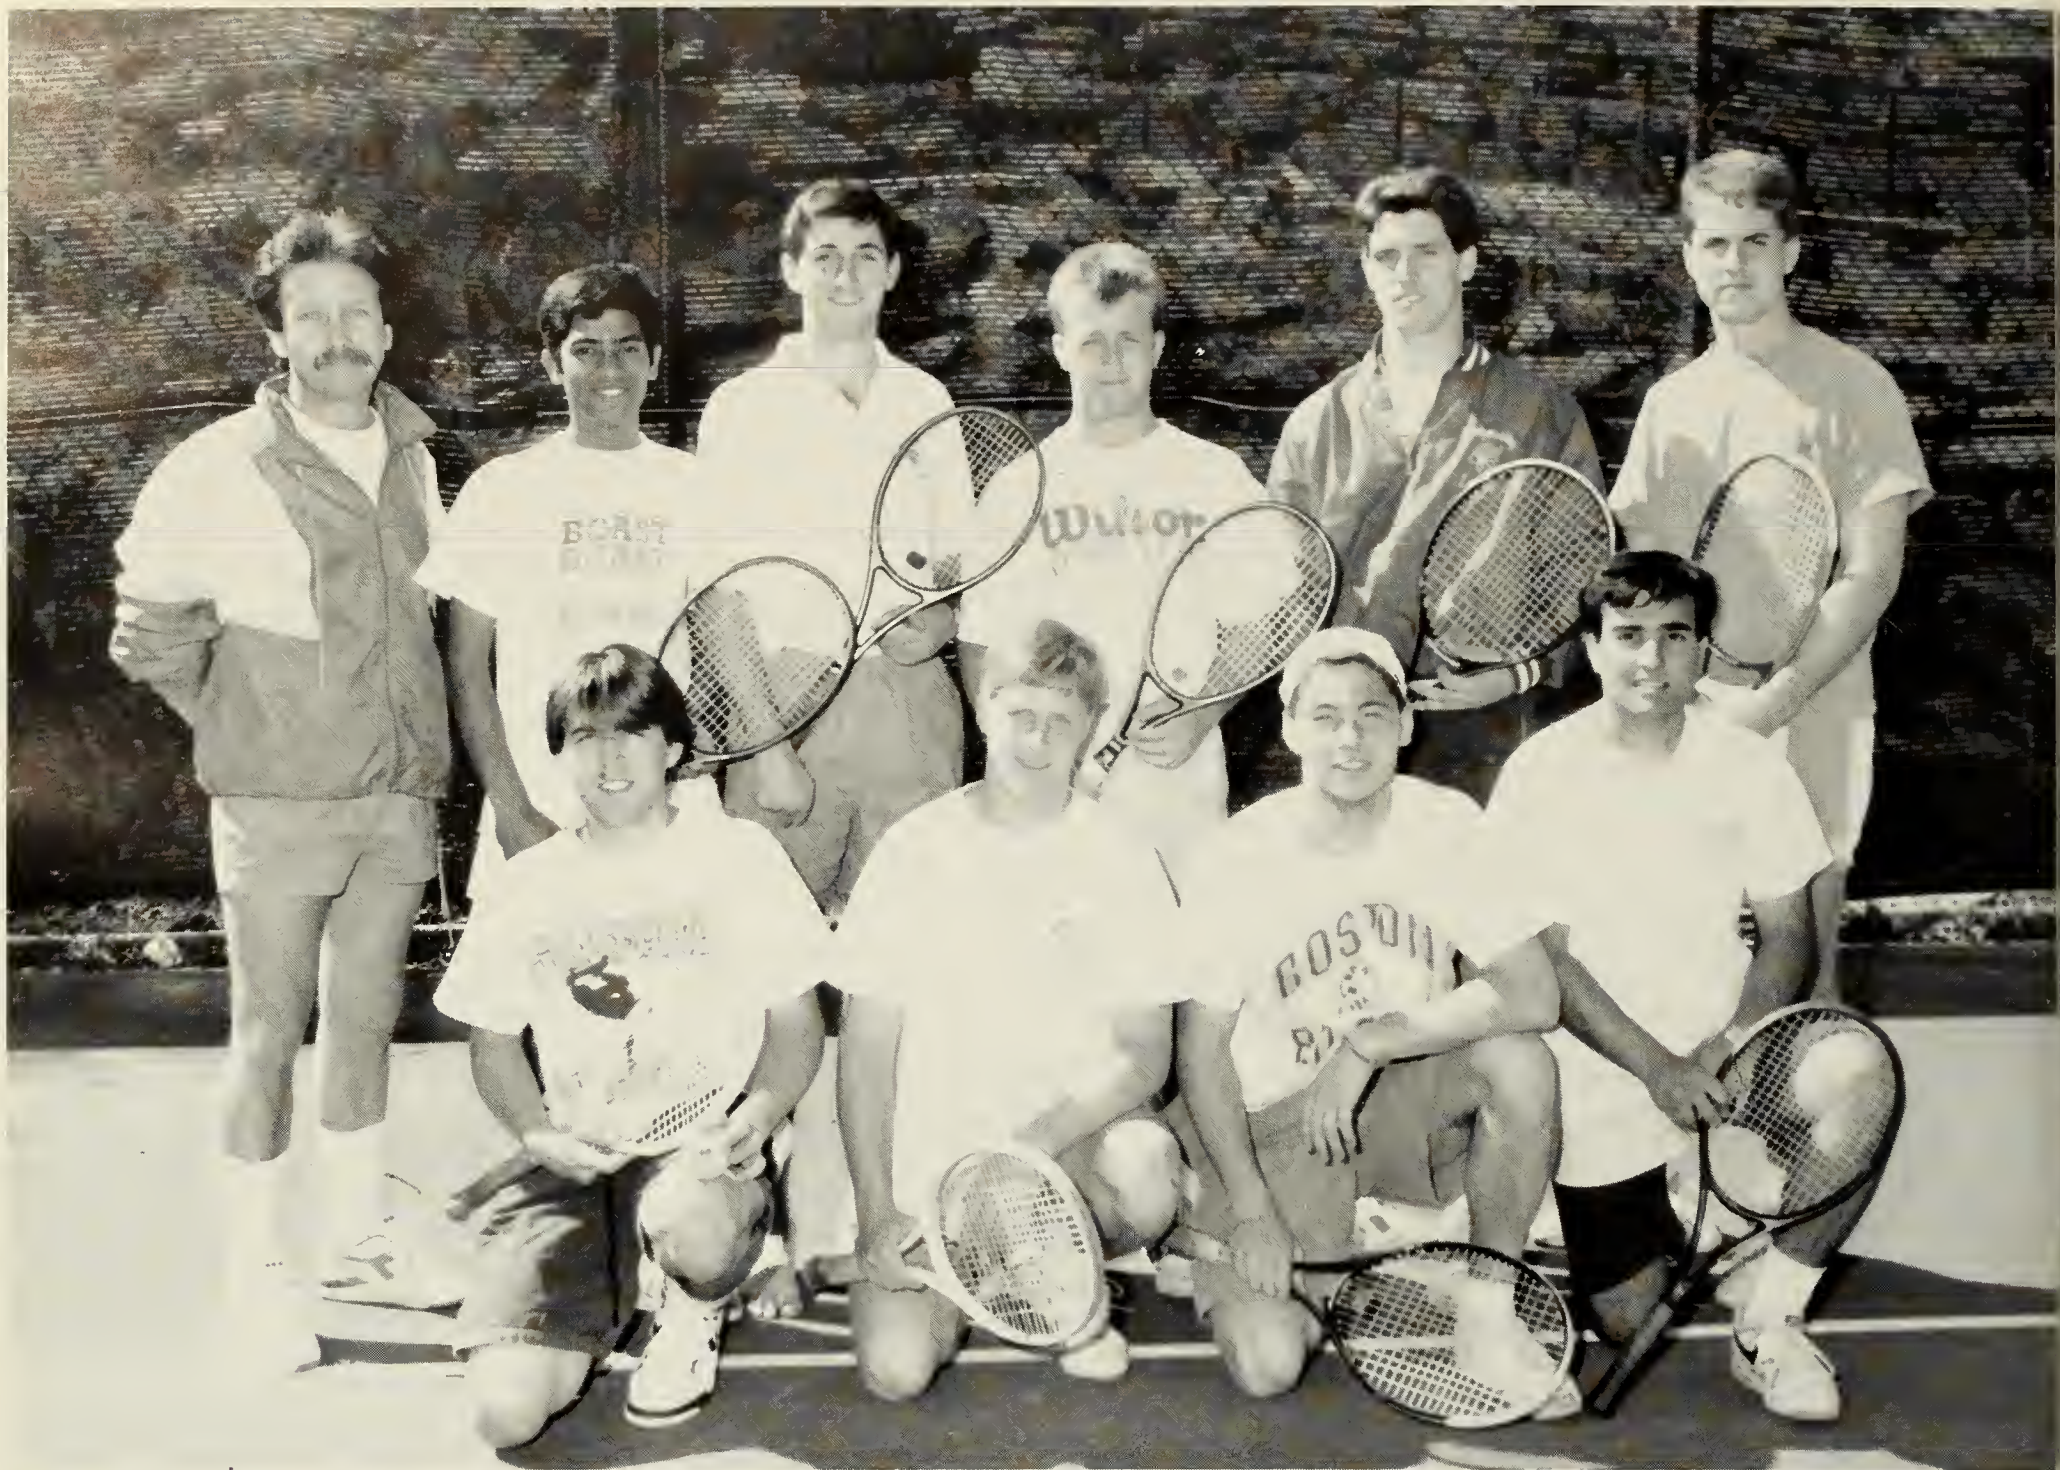

The pitching staff, particularly freshman right-hander Joanne McNamara, was the most encouraging development during the year. McNamara posted a 7-14 record with a 3.46 earned run average and walked only 37 batters in 129.2 innings. She hurled three shutouts during the spring and allowed only one earned run in her final 29 innings. The pitching staff posted a 3.81 era.

The offense hit .234, scored 72 runs (2.25 per game), and batted in 58 runs in 32 games this spring. Their on-base percentage was .308 and they slugged .283 with 220 total bases (148 singles, 30 doubles, four triples). Senior co-captain Maureen Casey led the team with a .299 average and 13 runs batted in. Junior Sharon Stagliola enjoyed a productive season at the top of the Chiefs' batting order hitting .295 with 13 runs scored, 15 walks, and a .415 on-base percentage. Her six doubles and .364 slugging percentage tied for the team lead with junior second baseman Lynn Dadekian. Junior Lisa Gallagher tied a single season record stealing 12 bases in 17 attempts. Freshman Janine Davey hit .221 with 11 rbi and was named to the All-New England Collegiate Conference second team.

Much Improved

The Chiefs flirted with a .500 record all season before losing the final match of the year to Worcester Polytech and finishing with a 5-7 mark. Coach Tom Chew's team was second of five teams at the New England Collegiate Conference Championships and tied for 17th of 26 at the New England Championships. It was a season of big improvement after last year's squad was 2-11 and fourth at the NECC Championships.

Junior Sridhar Kalluri was the top singles winner with a 7-6 record. Senior captain Ken Gould, sophomore Andy Granger, and junior Sean Todd each posted six wins. The doubles duo of junior Sean Todd and freshman Brian Hailey had the best doubles record at 9-7 and gave the Chiefs a 5-4 win over Division One New Hampshire by winning the third doubles match. Granger and Kalluri posted four wins, as did the Gould and Granger team.

Outstanding Performers

The Men's Track Team made an impression at various regional meets as 11 Chiefs earned All-Eastern League, All-ECAC and All-New England status during the winter season. Senior tri-captain Mike Chamberas, after missing the entire cross country season with an injury, was All-Eastern League in the 1,500 meters and Distance Medley Relay, All-ECAC in the 3,000 meters, and All-New England in the 5,000 meters. He qualified for the NCAA Championships in the 5,000 meters and missed All-American honors by one place after finishing seventh. Sophomore John Doherty and junior Dave Cremin also ran the 5,000 meters at the NCAA meet and crossed the finish line eighth and eleventh, respectively.

Freshman Craig Hosterman and junior Joe Donovan were ECAC Champions in the 55-meter hurdles and 800-meters, respectively. Donovan anchored the first-place 4x800 meter relay team at the ECAC's including sophomore Jerry Bailey, freshmen Gary Neal, and Mike Toomey. Donovan, senior tri-captain Bill Bradbury, Doherty, and Chamberas won the Eastern League Distance Medley Relay.

Other All-Eastern Leaguers included Bradbury (55-meter hurdles), sophomore Jerry Bailey (1,500 meters) and Donovan (800-meters). Earning All-ECAC honors were Bradbury (55-meter hurdles), freshman Don Robbins (long jump), Doherty (3,000-meters), senior Terence White (1,000-meters), Bailey (1,500-meters), and junior Rob Blume (shot put).

Mike Chamberas' All-American effort in the 10,000 meters at the NCAA Division Two Championship highlighted the outdoor season. Chamberas finished seventh to earn All-American honors. The team highlight was a third place finish at the ECAC Division Two Championships. The Chiefs had 16 All-ECAC performances including four individuals and a relay team who won their events during the spring season. The ECAC Champions were: Dave Cremin in the 5,000 meters, Joe Donovan in the 800 meters, Mike Toomey in the steeplechase, Doherty in the 10,000 meters and the 4x100 relay of Bradbury, Hosterman, Robbins, and sophomore Jeff Strasnick. Cremin's 14:53.68 time and Donovan's 1:52.9 clocking in their respective events were ECAC meet records.

Making Strides

W o m e n s T r a c k

The Women's Track team continued to make strides in the region with four All-ECAC performances and two All-New England efforts during the indoor season. Senior co-captain Cheryle Dalton earned All-ECAC honors with an 18-1 long jump for third place and a 7.42 second 55-meter dash for fifth place. She was also All-New England in the long jump finishing third with a 18-8 leap, which qualified her for the NCAA Championships. Sophomore Maureen Madigan joined Dalton as an All-ECAC honoree with a fifth place in the 300-meters. Dalton and Madigan teamed with freshman Sarah Dundon and junior Teresa Willis for an All-ECAC, third place finish in the 4x220-yard relay. Junior Tracy Maher was All-New England in the 3000-meters.

Cheryle Dalton's consistent excellence in the long jump highlighted the outdoor season.

The second annual Chiefs' Excellence Banquet was held in May to honor the student-athletes, coaches and athletic staff members at the University. Awards were presented to an individual on each team who made significant contributions to the team while maintaining a minimum fall term or cumulative GPA of 2.5. In addition, the Lester H. Cushing awards were presented to the outstanding male and female athletes at ULowell.

For the second consecutive year Rosalyn Worsley, a senior on the women's basketball team was named the female recipient of the Cushing award. Worsley was only the second woman to receive the award twice. Worsley owns 20 individual records, including 18 she set, tied or extended during the 90-91 season. She is first on the all-time lists for points (1,563), games played (114), field goals made (553), free throws made (380), free-throw percentage (.788), three-point percentage (.348) and steals (199). "Take a look at what the program has done since Rosalyn came here and that's a good indication of the type of player she is," Coach Kathy O'Neil said. "We've played in two big post-season tournaments the last two years and had three straight winning seasons where she's been our leading scorer. Her stats speak for themselves."

Steve Lane, a two-sport standout for the Chiefs, was named the male recipient of the Cushing award in 1991. Lane was co-captain and started at guard for the men's basketball team. He led the team in scoring, three pointers, assists and steals and was among the NECC's top 10 in five categories. "Steve is an excellent pick for the award because he helps a team as much with his leadership qualities as he does with his play," said head basketball coach Stan Van Gundy. In baseball, Lane was a tri-captain and second baseman for the Chiefs, who won the NECC Championship and made their first NCAA Tournament since 1988. Batting leadoff, he finished fifth on the team with a .324 average. An NECC and ABCA Northeast Region all-star, Lane has a .351 career average in 79 games and is second on the all-time stolen base list with 49.

The first David J. Boutin Award was presented to swimmer Mark Garneau. The award was established by the athletic department in memory of David Boutin, a catcher for three years on the baseball team. The award, which will be given annually, will recognize one student-athlete who has made significant contributions to the school and the Greater Lowell community beyond those associated with athletic competition.

Just for to-day I will try to live through this day only, and not tackle my whole life problem at once. I can do something for twelve hours that would appall me if I had to keep it up for a lifetime.

Just for to-day I will be happy. This assumes to be true what Abraham Lincoln said, that "Most folks are as happy as they make up their minds to be."

Just for to-day I will adjust myself to what is, and not try to adjust everything to my own desires. I will take my "luck" as it comes and fit myself to it.

Just for to-day I will try to strengthen my mind. I will study. I will learn something useful. I will not be a mental loafer. I will read something that requires effort, thought and concentration. Just for to-day I will exercise my soul in three ways; I will do somebody a good turn, and not get found out; if anybody knows of it, it will not count. I will do at least two things I don't want to do — just for exercise. I will not show anyone that my feelings are hurt; they may be hurt, but to-day I will not show it.

Just for to-day I will be agreeable. I will look as well as I can, dress becomingly, talk low, act courteously, criticize not one bit, not find fault with anything, and try not to improve or regulate anyone but myself.

Just for to-day I will have a program, I may not follow it exactly, but I will have it. I will save myself from two pests; hurry and indecision.

Just for to-day I will have a quiet half hour all by myself, and relax. During this half hour, sometime, I will try to get a better perspective of my life.

Just for to-day I will be unafraid. Especially I will not be afraid to enjoy what is beautiful, and to believe that as I give to the world, so the world will give to me.

Jennifer Beaumont 1968-1990

She was with us for a little while to share the joys and tears and the memory of her loving smile will last for all our years.

I N M E M O R I U M

In 1990, the University of Lowell community lost a dear and valued member, David Boutin, a former catcher for the Lowell baseball team died after a courageous six month battle with cancer. David's brother Michael told this story during the funeral service for David. "Several years back, David got a job working at a local fast food restaurant. After closing, David would fill a bag with leftover hamburgers, take them to the low income neighborhoods in Lowell, and distribute them to the kids. I found out what he was doing and told him that I thought hanging out around that neighborhood late at night was dangerous. He simply laughed and said, 'they're hungry', and kept right on delivering hamburgers. That was David."

David had the chance to meet his baseball hero Jose Canseco. Shortly after being introduced to Canseco, David asked him if he would sign autographs for him to take back to a group of neighborhood kids. Canseco was visibly touched when he realized that David, despite being confined to a wheelchair and suffering from cancer treatments, was concerned more about the kids than himself. David's generosity and courage will have lasting impact on those lives he touched.

Rich Smith

Well here it is - Finally!!! I know many of you have been waiting forever for this book to be finished, well join the club. There isn't too much for me to say to everyone except quit bitchin' if you weren't here to put your time in. I can hear it now, but what about my classes. Well I would like to ask you, what about my summer vacation? I think we did pretty well with our 7 engineers, 1 business, 2 marketing and 1 exercise phys. majors. Suprisingly we at Sojourn have had none of what you might expect to be typical staff members. I recall a time when I was at Josten's publishing when a rep asked me if I was a journalism major. Not quite unless you consider my Technical Writing class I took as a Civil Engineer as a qualification.

I would like to thank my staff personally: Donna Leonard, Dave Ryan, Tom Graves, Wilie Burks, Blessing Tawengwah, Rob Moore. Greg Robbins, Adam Hayden, Jim Soto, and Rich Smith. Also deserving of thanks are those on that helped in innumerable ways, Dean Thomas Taylor and the people at University Life, and Mary Connelly and everyone at her office, our publishing rep. John Neister of Josten's Printing and Publishing and Norm Benrimo of Yearbook Associates. Norm, I wish you the best in your retirement it's been a pleasure working with you. If I left anyone out I apologize.

I would like to address everyone when I say: get involved, you'll have a lot more fun and have a little something to show for your time spent at The University of Lowell rather than a few grades. The friends you will make will last a lifetime.

To the graduates of the class of 1991, I wish the best and I hope that you will look back at being the last graduating class of The University of Lowell and have as many good memories about it as I do.

Paul J. Moynihan
Editor-In-Chief
